Welcome to Universal Studios Florida® where we put you in the movies!

From the instant you stroll through the Studio Gates, you're transported into the fabulous world of Hollywood make-believe — where a special role awaits you! And with Steven Spielberg, the director of E.T., as the Studio's creative consultant, you know your experience will be absolutely out of this world as you Ride The Movies!®

As a guest at the largest and most sophisticated working motion picture and television production studio outside of Hollywood, you discover the secrets of how we create the movie magic and even make some of your own — behind the scenes, in front of the camera, and right in the middle of it all!

Your Hollywood exploration takes you on a nonstop journey through hundreds of fun-filled acres, with spellbinding shows, fantastic movie sets, and "hang-on-fight" rides. Soar through time and space, meet movie legends and monsters face to face, and get totally caught up in some of the most exciting screen scenes ever filmed. Fantasy becomes reality as you feel, see, hear, touch, smell, taste, and live the ultimate in entertainment!

Stroll along glamorous streets like Fifth Avenue and Rodeo Drive. Wander through authentic sets like San Francisco's famous Fisherman's Wharf. Be on the lookout for stars as you watch next year's hits in production, and help produce an award-winning network series. And for the ultimate in thrills, ride blockbuster movies like E.T.®, Back to the Future®, Earthquake®, and more.

You've landed the role of your lifetime, and they're waiting for you on the set!

The Universal Studios® globe and marquee — the world-renowned symbols for great entertainment.

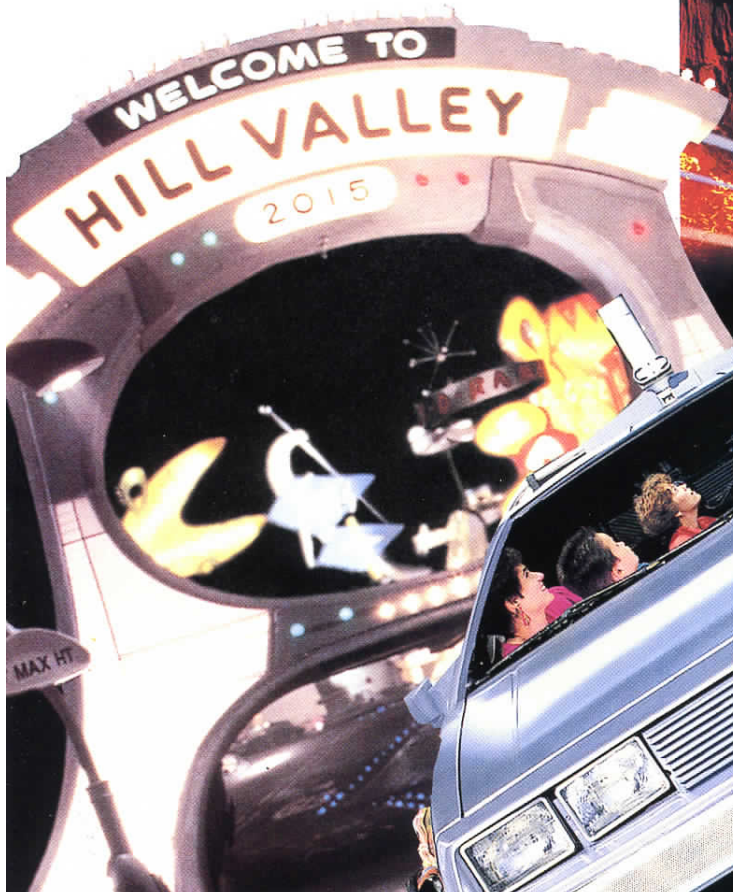

Buckle up! Time travel volunteers get ready for a 21 million-jigowatt journey of cosmic proportions!

Christopher Lloyd continues his role as the wacky genius Doc Brown in Back To The Future®...The Ride.™

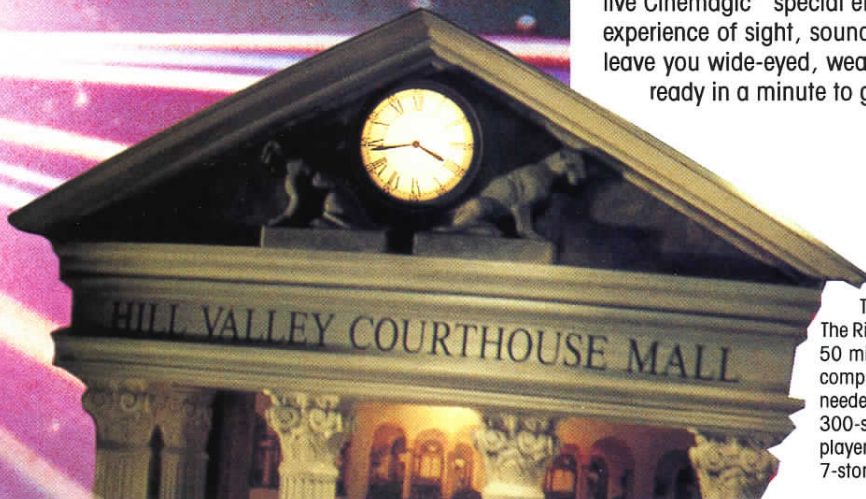

Time travelers Tom Wilson, Mary Steenburgen and Michael J. Fox drop in to do the honors at the grand opening of Back To The Future®...The Ride.™

Whatsamatter... are you chicken?

Buckle up tight and hang on for your life! Universal Studios Florida® brings you the thrill ride of the century, a super-sonic experience that propels you beyond the boundaries of imagination and straight into the ultimate time travel adventure! Soaring and plunging, weaving and twisting, Doc Brown's wonder car leaves reality in its tire tracks as you race headlong through the millenia. It's a dazzling, dizzying odyssey that takes you all the way from the Dawn of Time and the days of the dinosaurs to the year 2015 and the Hill Valley of the future. State-of-the-art OMNIMAX® surround screens, space-age flight simulators, and live Cinemagic™ special effects create a mind-boggling experience of sight, sound, and sensation that will leave you wide-eyed, weak-kneed, dry-mouthed, and ready in a minute to go Back To The Future® again!

The operation of Back To The Future... The Ride requires more than 20 computers, 50 miles of electrical wire, and 5,000 computer cues. Other high-tech elements needed to create the experience include a 300-speaker sound system, 20 laser disc players, 60 video monitors, and two 7-story-high OMNIMAX® dome screens.

Would-be time travelers report to the Institute of Future Technology to begin the chase—and the ride of their lives!
